Only a couple of weeks ago the world commemorated the liberation of Auschwitz concentration camp in World War two. This Sunday we will be fleshing out the lectionary Old Testament reading of Isaiah 40:21-31 in the light of the story of a concentration camp survivor – Elie Wiesel, and looks at how we wrestle with a just God in an unjust world.

Please note that next week we are holding church outdoors – at Pukemokemoke bush reserve. Bring a cut lunch, and good footwear. We will meet at the church carpark at 10am.

God bless, David
