Below is a wonderful picture of the Harvest by Pieter Bruegel. Harvest is traditionally a time when all the crops and produce are finally harvested at the end of summer. Villagers would then go to church to thank God for His provision. Being a rural church, I thought it apt for us to do this – even though we are a bit late – it is autumn! Please bring along some non-perishable food items, and place them in the baskets located in the church porch on the way in – they will be bought forward during the Offertory part of the service. The altar will be decorated with pumpkins, wheat, grapes etc. God bless, David
