I believe in healings and miracles. But not everyone is healed. Some people are dreadfully afflicted physically or mentally all the days of their lives. Some people are afflicted by loss and grief that they can never get over. This Sunday we will be looking at the gospel reading, in which the resurrected Christ insists that his disciples touch him – he still bears the wounds of his torture. Why was his resurrected body not made perfect? This Sunday and we will look at this remarkable story, and see how it shows us insight into the mind of an incredibly loving God. God bless, David.
