Sermon: "Following Christ" Rev. David Smithson

Refreshments: Brenda Stobie

We all seem to follow something. Some people follow the Rugby, some follow a TV series, and some people may follow a novel and subsequent publications such as the "Harry Potter" series of books. Some people follow food fads or diets, or maybe a musician and their new releases (to speak of a new LP or even CD now seems old fashioned!). Some of these things you follow may not cost you too much, and you do not have to drastically change much in order to follow them. What about following Christ? What do you do to follow Christ? Does your life change to follow Him? What does it cost you? Is following Christ just going to church on a Sunday? We will look at what Jesus said about following Him in Luke chapter 9. God bless, David.
