Sermon: "The Grace of God: Monster to Saint" Rev. David Smithson

Refreshments: Katy Cockerton

God's amazing grace continues to inspire and surprise. Christianity is unique to all other religions because of the grace offered by Jesus Christ to forgive, to transform and to restore; no matter how much or how little, how huge or how slight the things from you may have done in your past. A great Christian saint was once the fear of all Christians – hounding and persecuting them, until God's grace caught him, and transformed him from a monster to a saint. God meets you where you are at, no matter what point you are in your life. His grace extends to everyone, and He also searches out for those lost sheep, to restore them back into His fold.
