The time of year has rolled around where we either make up gift boxes for ex-prisoners or children, and this year is the one for the children – Operation Christmas Child. More details to follow at the end of the service. Please also see the notice board in the church porch for the latest newsletter from the Frasers in UK, working with immigrants and refugees in assisting them to integrate, as well as sharing with them the Good News of the Gospel. God bless, David.
