Mel & I attended Synod 27th-29th last month, and we found that it went very smoothly, and I felt that it was the most united Synod that I have attended in many years.

For those who have the Operation Christmas Child boxes, please ensure they are returned to the church or to Café Agora before the end of the month.

The pet blessing service last Sunday was wonderful. Many thanks to those who brought along their four legged friends God bless, David.
