Homily: "Taking back the Mountain" Rev. David Smithson

Refreshments: Melanie Holdsworth

Last week's sermon expanded our minds into some aspects of the supernatural biblical narrative. This Sunday we pick up this theme, as we come across the Transfiguration of Jesus when he went up a mountain, and there he was transfigured, which means a marked change in form and appearance, a metamorphosis if you will. Why this mountain, and why was Jesus transfigured there? Buckle up your seatbelts again! God bless, David
