10am Holy Communion Service

Homily: "Turning Tables" Rev. David Smithson

Refreshments: Rosalie Jennings

This Sunday we come across Jesus literally lashing out – he is not acting “nice”. There is a difference between nice and good. Nice people do not want to confront evil or wrongdoing, whilst good people do, and they do so unflinchingly while standing up for the truth when faced with evil, wrongdoing, or lies. Jesus was good, and when confronted with these issues, he pulled no punches – telling things where they were, and often “offending” people in the process. God bless, David
