10am Holy Communion Service

Homily: "Small Beginnings" Rev. David Smithson

Refreshments: Majella Heaton

There is both misinformation and censorship occurring in narratives spun in our society, so it invaluable to know the truth from a lie. Another name for the Holy Spirit is the Counsellor of Truth referenced by Jesus in John 14. The Holy Spirit indwells in the hearts of believers. Ask the Holy Spirit to grant you discernment sharper than a sword, for sincere discernment is authentic truth. Through His gentle urging in our hearts, we can discern what is His truth, and what is rubbish. He grants a peace beyond understanding, even when what is discerned as truth can be surprising, confronting, and may not always make sense. Trust in the Holy Spirit of the Lord, for it is in and through Him that the truth is revealed. On another matter, this Sunday we will look at how God can use seemingly insignificant people for great things...! God bless, David
