Homily: "Love for Enemies" Rev David Smithson

Refreshments: Sally-Ann Riddell

At times we can feel like our faith is at siege with the world, especially with the many social changes the last decade up to today that can clash with the basic tenants of how God wills humans to live and have their being. At times we feel like the world can be our enemy, and we may feel frustrated and sometimes to lash out at the "enemies" who assault Christianity. What does Jesus say about enemies? We will look into Luke 6 especially verses 37 and 38: "Judge not..." God bless, David
