10am Holy Communion Service

Homily: "The Cost of Following Christ" Rev David Smithson

Morning Tea: Karen B

In the not so distant past, many in New Zealand would claim to be Christian, just because they live in New Zealand – a then "Christian country", or that they loosely agree with Christianity – or they may have gone to church occasionally or Sunday School when they were a child. What is it to be a Christian – a Christ follower? Jesus lays it on heavy in Luke 14:25-35 and when it comes to following Him, He requires quality not quantity – at a cost.

God bless, David
