10am Holy Communion Service

Homily: "Boldness in the World" Rev David Smithson

Morning Tea: The Clark's

In an ever increasing secular world that is growing further away from God's truth and Law, Christians who proclaim the undiluted gospel of repentance from sin and following Christ as the only way, truth and life will sooner or later clash. Peter and John clashed with authorities of their day right after healing a lame man. What can we learn from them?

God bless, David
