10am Holy Communion Service

Homily: "Sarah Laughed & Lied" Rev David Smithson

Morning Tea: Helen

This Sundays Old Testament reading covers a fascinating story of three people turning up to visit Abraham who knew a lot about him. Many scholars think they were three angels, or even the Trinity. In the latter part of the reading the conversation morphs directly with Abraham, Sarah and the Lord in which He catches Sarah out telling a fib to Him... The picture below is a famous painting of the Three by Andrei Rublev. God bless, David

+ Prayer & Praise Points +

- For Catherine & the girls as they mourn the loss of Aphia
- Praise God for the safe arrival of Karen and Albert's new granddaughter Pohutukawa ☺
