Homily: "An Easter Church" Rev David Smithson

Morning Tea: Trish

In Acts 3:11-20 we see Peter and John heal a crippled man who had always stayed at the Beautiful Gate. He was a "part of the furniture". Peter then talks to the amazed people who crowded around and explained that it was Jesus – whom they crucified – who healed the man, and why should they be surprised at this? Do we as individuals and as a church keep silent, or do we proclaim truth and persevering in Jesus' name – an Easter Church always pointing to Him?

God bless, David
