10am Holy Communion Service

Homily: "Holy Holy Holy" Rev David Smithson

Morning Tea: Trish

Today we delve into a fascinating experience that the prophet Isaiah had, when he was taken to the throne room of God. We might think that getting to meet God face-to-face would be a pleasure, but for Isaiah sensing God's holiness was nothing short of terrifying. It's an experience of fire and smoke, of strange six-winged creatures, and of a God so big that a tiny bit of the hem of God's robe fills the whole temple...how can we as followers of Jesus know holiness? It may be closer than you think, via your baptism..?

God bless, David
