10am Holy Communion Service

Homily: "Heroes of the Faith" Rev David Smithson

Morning Tea: Karen

In Hebrews the author (Paul or Luke) tries to describe the results that Faith has in our lives. His point is that faith means believing and acting on something we can't see. This is the quality of faith that he especially wants the readers to imitate. On Faith, he says in Hebrews 11:2 "The people of the ancient times won God's approval." From the ancient times (and when this was written 2,000 years ago, we are talking really ancient!) Faith is a thread that runs through the history of God's people, and he brings it down to the present day... God bless, David
