Homily: "Guess Who's Coming to Dinner?" Rev David Smithson

Morning Tea/Lunch: @ Café MatteBlack

This morning's Gospel reading Jesus was invited to a banquet at the home of a Pharisee, and not because the Pharisee was a big fan of Jesus.

The Pharisees always gave Jesus a hard time because his teachings always went against their rules and practices.

The real reason behind the invitation was that the Pharisee wanted to get a better view of Jesus – and watch him like a hawk. When Jesus arrived, he noticed that all of the important people in the society were vying to get the seats closest to the guest of honour, while those of lower classes sat at the back. Jesus was about to rock the boat... God bless, David

+ Prayer & Praise Points +

- For our persecuted brothers and sisters in Kenya
- For those who are struggling with sickness – may they be healed in Jesus name
