10am Holy Communion Service

Homily: "Growing in Faith" Rev David Smithson

Morning Tea: Karen

A baby lives on milk for the first months. It's milk for breakfast, milk for lunch, milk for dinner, and milk everywhere in-between. He can't handle anything else, because he is just a baby. He doesn't have the teeth and the digestive system to handle solid food yet. Paul says this is what the Corinthians were like when he was with them. Most of them were new converts through his ministry. They were babies in the faith, so he gave them the truth of the gospel in simple form which was easy for them to take in and digest and use. As they grew in faith, these truths would be expanded on...
