10am Holy Communion Service

Homily: "A Lesson in Humility" Rev David Smithson

Morning Tea: Ruby

We will be looking at Philippians 2:1-13, where Paul teaches us what it means to live like Jesus. He shows us that the Christian life is not about putting ourselves first. It is about putting Christ first and serving others with a humble heart. In a world that encourages people to promote themselves, seek recognition, and pursue their own interests, God's Word points us in a different direction. Jesus calls us to humility. Humility is not thinking poorly of yourself. Humility is thinking of God and others before yourself. It is having the attitude of Christ... God bless, David

+ Prayer & Praise Points +

- For the Lord's guiding hand on our parish
- For our children and grandchildren to keep the Faith, and to be safe during the term break
