Homily: "Of Debt, Love, and Temptation" Rev David Smithson

Morning Tea: Karen

In Romans 13:8-14 Paul teaches us how we are to live as sacrifices to God, alive, holy, and pleasing to him. This is what the life of a true follower of Jesus looks like. Love does not do wrong things to others. Love does not murder because is not doing to others as you want them to do for you. All the commands that Paul mentions are commands that show a lack of love for the other person. Paul lumps all of these ideas together. Loving means that I will not leave my debts outstanding. You want people to pay you back. We love by paying what is due to others...God bless, David
